Summer parties

THE HONOURABLE SOCIETY OF
THE INNER TEMPLE

Summer parties At The Inner Temple

The Inner Temple is one of four Inns of Court with its estate dating back to the 14th Century and is part of the Temple's Conservation Area, which has one of the largest concentrations of Grade I listed buildings in London.

Surrounded by vibrant greenery and adorned with meticulously groomed areas that effortlessly harmonise for social gatherings, The Inner Temple sets the ideal stage for your summer festivities.

Whether you choose to host a spirited summer soirée or a full day of family celebrations, our versatile spaces are designed to meet all your requirements.

Situated in a unique location, the Inn guarantees privacy and tranquillity, providing a delightful retreat from the lively streets of Central London.

A mere stone's throw from the Thames, the Garden offers views of the iconic river, enhancing the ambiance of your summer celebration.

The Garden

The Inner Temple Garden, stretching across three acres of greenery and blossoms, has earned acclaim for its award-winning charm. With a capacity for up to 300 guests, the garden offers a refined setting for outdoor events, available from May until the marquee installation in June. Perfect for drink receptions, it presents a quietly sophisticated ambiance for creating lasting memories during summer gatherings. In case of wet weather, the main building offers suitable alternatives, ensuring a seamless and enjoyable experience for all attendees.
